

Information Letter

This study information sheet lays out some of the rules and benefits of your participation. Please read the information below and ask questions about anything that you do not understand. If you have any questions about the study, please email František Bartoš at f.bartos@uva.nl.

You are being asked to participate in a research study. Participation in this study is voluntary. You may choose to skip a question or a study procedure. You may refuse to participate or discontinue your involvement at any time without providing any reason and without penalty. You are free to withdraw from this study at any time. If you decide to withdraw from this study you should notify the research team immediately.

Purpose of the study:

There is a possibility that a fair coin toss will land on the same side it has been tossed from with a higher chance than 50%.

Compensation:

You will receive research credits upon a completion of the study. The de-identified data will be made publicly available on the Open Science Framework (www.osf.io) upon completion of the research project.

You are free to withdraw at any time without penalty. You also can withdraw consent after the experiment is complete and your data will be discarded. To do so, contact František Bartoš at f.bartos@uva.nl. Formal complaints about this study may be addressed to the UvA Ethics Review Board via Lourens Waldorp at l.j.waldorp@uva.nl.

Informed Consent

"I hereby declare that I have been well informed about the nature, method and purpose of this study. I understand that my personal details, such as email address will not be revealed to people outside this project. I give permission to use my data in anonymized form and I know that both data and results from this research will be anonymously and confidentially disclosed to third parties. I understand that for the purpose of this research I have to answer all questions truthfully. I voluntarily agree to participate in this study. I know that I keep the right to quit my participation at any time without having to give any reason.
